

BOSS COACHING PROGRAM

This program is designed for you to get more control in your career, get more control over your business, maybe even more control of your life. Completion of this program will allow for more favorable outcomes as related to your:

- Colleagues
- Projects
- Supervisor
- Subordinates
- Vendors
- Partners
- Clients
- Personal Goals

The program is rooted in the idea of crafting the optimal agenda and selling that agenda to those who impact your progress. After a deep dive into the situation and people aspect of your environment, I will help you create the strategy, advise on the modes of communication and provide the language to push your agenda. This process will change your mentality and impact your confidence, impacting your overall sense of self and happiness.

With the deep understanding of your environment, I will create a Plan of Action based off of information ascertained from our conversation. As you execute on that plan, I will be available for remote support by way of strategy planning meeting, debriefs, checking email/text correspondence and pep sessions to keep you motivated.

Process:

1. Exploratory meeting/call
2. Proposed Plan of Action with final budget
3. Formalize relationship
4. Deeper exploration & Goal Setting
5. Execution with support
